

International Economics Division

1. Functions of the International Economics Division are :-
 - a) Medium term balance of payments and debt service projections.
 - b) Analysis of international trade and commodity price trends.
 - c) Study of market shares and country commodity composition of exports.
 - d) Policies relating to merchandise trade, invisibles, private foreign investment and external borrowings.
 - e) Institutional arrangements for foreign trade. Export Processing Zones, Export Promotion Councils and Commodity Boards.
 - f) Long term trade, payments and external debt scenarios.
 - g) New International Economic Order, NAM and International Development Strategy.
 - h) Technical cooperation between the Planning Commission and the national planning organisations of other countries.